

Interstate Crossing

Partner Agencies

Interstate Crossing (“Property”) makes units specifically available to applicants receiving supportive services related to maintaining an alcohol and drug-free lifestyle, achieving self-sufficiency, life skills development, and work/job skills development. Further, the Property grants waitlist preferences to families referred to Central City Concern Housing Administration (“Housing”) by certain partner agencies. The following is a list of qualified partner agencies:

- Central City Concern
  - Alcohol and Drug Free Housing
  - Blackburn Transitional Housing
  - Imani Center
  - Puentes
  - Letty Owings Center
  - Recovery Center
- Comprehensive Options for Drug Abusers (CODA)
- DePaul Treatment Centers, Inc.
- Lifeworks NW: Project Network
- Multnomah County: Department of Community and Family Services
- Multnomah County: Department of Community Justice
- NARA of the Northwest, Inc.
- Salvation Army: West Women’s and Children’s Shelter
- Transition Projects
- Volunteers of America
- WomenFirst Transitional & Referral Center